

As the Curtain Falls on 2020, We Look for a Brighter Year in 2021

Human interest, filled with its joy and tragedy, has always been the historical thread that binds our generations. It has neither timeframe, nor limitation. Within its walls, there are riveting stories that frame our 5,000-year culture. And 2020 is but one year in its compendium of happenings!

Confronted with an evil Coronavirus, we have been witness to the attack upon the thousands of innocent victims it has so cruelly and callously struck down. But we are a strong and resilient people! While 2020 has brought great harm and mourning to thousands of Americans, our resolve to survive will carry us through a brighter 2021, and beyond.

We at Finz & Finz, P.C. are forever mindful of the severe hardship and loss suffered by so many of our clients and friends. The medical, economic, emotional, and other devastating impact upon their families has been beyond measure – and our response to be of assistance has never wavered.

Thus, as the curtain falls on 2020, with all of its suffering, we embark upon a new and brighter year with the hope that this new chapter will bring good health, much joy, and true happiness and success to you and your families, not only in 2021, but also in the many years that follow.

With my most sincere and best wishes,

Stuart L. Finz
